Learning A-Z

<http://www.learninga-z.com>

Learning A-Z's comprehensive approach to literacy combines reading and writing with the many other skills students need to thrive, including the ability to think critically, solve problems, use technology, and communicate effectively. We see literacy as the foundation for all learning, and through it, we empower students to see new possibilities, reach greater heights, and create brighter futures. The Learning A-Z family of websites began in 2002 at the hands of two talented entrepreneurs with years of experience in the education industry, Robert Holl and Francis Morgan. Holl and Morgan believed every child should have developmentally appropriate books and activities to learn to read-at school and at home. The company, with the support of a handful of staff, many still holding key positions today, started with Learning Page, which provides free printable activities, and Reading A-Z, a reading resource subscription website. Learning A-Z, whose parent organization is Cambium Learning Group, now provides a number of dynamic curriculum delivery websites with hundreds of thousands of teaching and learning resources for PreK-6 educators and students. A substantial percentage of classrooms in the United States and worldwide are benefiting from Learning A-Z's comprehensive collections of high-quality educational resources offered at a low cost and available 24/7 via the Internet.
